deugro Appoints Steffen Behrens as New Chief Commercial Officer

Hanau, Germany, March 27, 2025 – deugro appoints Steffen Behrens as new Chief Commercial Officer (CCO)

We are pleased to announce that Steffen Behrens has been appointed as the Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) of deugro, effective immediately. Steffen has been with deugro since 2017 and has played a pivotal role in leading and developing the Middle East region from his base in Dubai.

With over 20 years of experience in the project logistics industry, Steffen has held various roles in the U.A.E., China, and Germany within deugro and other companies. In 2022, he was promoted to deugro's President - Middle East, demonstrating his exceptional leadership and dedication to the company.

During a transitional phase, Steffen will continue to serve as both COO and President - Middle East until his sole CCO duties become fully effective September 1st. We are confident that Steffen's expertise and vision will drive the deugro group to new heights.

Thomas C. Press, Chairman and Co-CEO, expressed his satisfaction with the appointment: "We are pleased to announce that we have recruited this position from within and that Steffen Behrens has accepted the role as our new CCO. I look forward to his insights and leadership as our newest C-Suite member."

Steffen Behrens shared his excitement about the new role: "As someone who has been part of the deugro family for many years, I am thrilled to embrace this new role and the exciting challenges it brings. I am deeply committed to driving our group forward and continuing our global development to further strengthen our position in the industry."
